

Institute for Law and Finance

Johann Wolfgang Goethe-Universität Frankfurt

LAW AND FINANCE

Institute for Law and Finance

Mission Statement

for Law and Finance (ILF) is a center of excellence in the fields of international law and finance. It pursues the goal of providing the best interdisciplinary training for lawyers, senior management and executives from around the world. It strives to be at the forefront of legal developments relevant to financial markets. In addition to teaching, the ILF engages in research and publications. It also serves as a policy center by offering a forum for exchange between academia and practitioners.

Institute for Law and Finance

LL.M. Finance

One year program

- For around 50 law, business, and economics graduates
- In English, taught by more than 60 experts from academia, central banks, regulatory agencies, banks, law firms and audit firms
- International student body
(at the moment we have students from 30 different nations)
- Interdisciplinary
- Practical approach
- Internship experience

Institute for Law and Finance

International Profile of LL.M. Finance Program

- Faculty members from eight different nations
- Prominent visiting professors from abroad
- Student Exchange Program with Columbia Law School, Aarhus School of Business and Amsterdam Business School
- Erasmus Mundus Master with the Universities of Straßbourg, Tilburg and Deusto

Institute for Law and Finance

In addition to the LL.M. Finance program, the ILF offers Spring and Summer Schools on Corporate Law and Banking and Capital Markets Law

- Intensive two week courses
- 30 - 40 highly qualified young lawyers at the start of their careers
- Taught by partners from top law firms and senior representatives from banks and regulatory bodies

Institute for Law and Finance

Research and Policy Center

The ILF serves as a center for research and policy advice on issues related to corporate law and financial markets.

Institute for Law and Finance

Research and Policy Center

- Guest lectures, conferences and discussion forums on current topics are organised throughout the year
- Speakers include academics from around the world as well as experts from national and international regulatory bodies, banks, business corporations and law firms
- ILF Book Series is published annually
- ILF Working paper Series on current issues in law and finance

Institute for Law and Finance

Sponsors

- Sponsors and cooperation partners of the ILF include the ECB, the Federal Financial Supervisory Authority (BaFin), Deutsche Bundesbank, banks, law firms, accounting and consulting companies etc.
- Sponsors and partners support the ILF by providing lecturers for the programs, internship placements and funding.

Institute for Law and Finance

Cooperation between UAE University and ILF

- The ILF would be interested in offering places in the LL.M. Finance program to suitable candidates from UAE University.
- Internship program for ILF students doing research projects at UAE University.
- Promote staff/faculty cooperation in the fields of mutual interest through such activities as staff/faculty exchanges. The ILF would like to welcome professors from the UAE University to lecture on finance related issues such as „Islamic Finance“.
- Organization of bilateral joint symposia, workshops and conferences.

Institute for Law and Finance

Please do not hesitate to contact us for further information

Prof. Andreas Cahn
Director

Dr. Raphaela Henze
Managing Director

Institute for Law and Finance
im House of Finance
Grüneburgplatz 1
60323 Frankfurt
Tel.: 0049 (0) 69/ 79833626
Email: info@ilf.uni-frankfurt.de